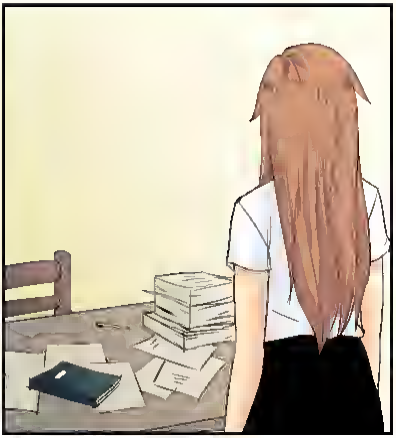
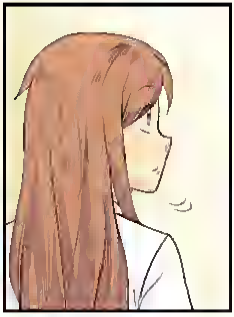
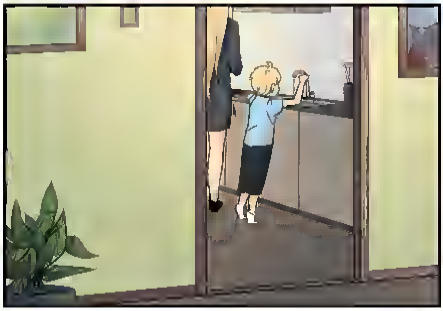
Is this really the dinner table we're supposed to eat on?

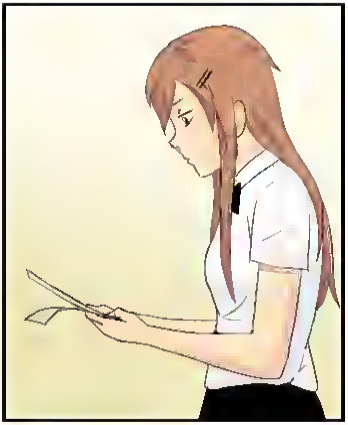


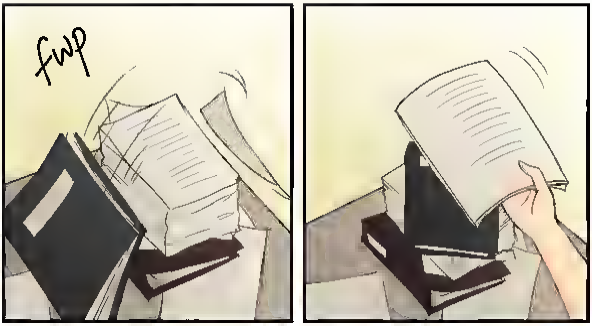




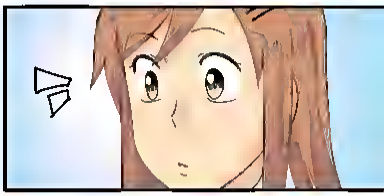
Ikeda-kun and his mother are already cooking

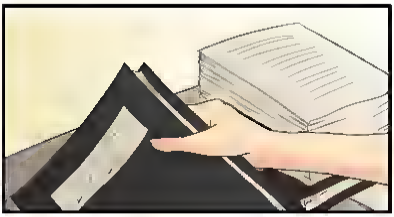
So maybe I should help clean up a bit?



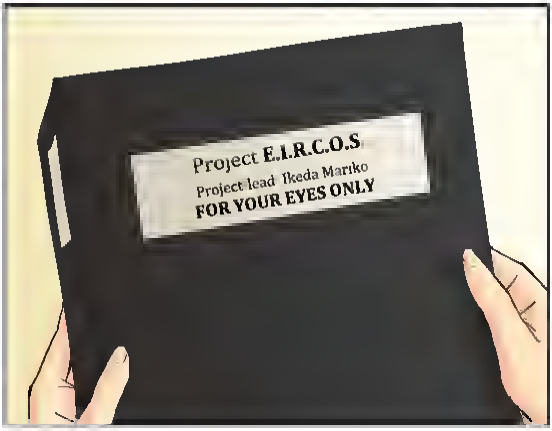


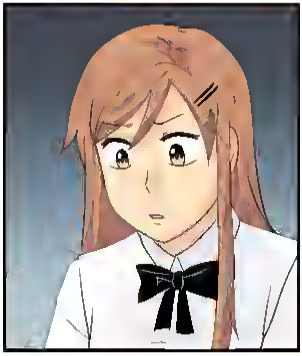
What is-



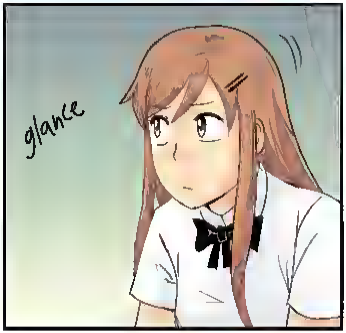


What is this?

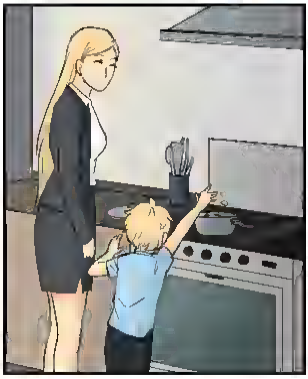




This looks really important...

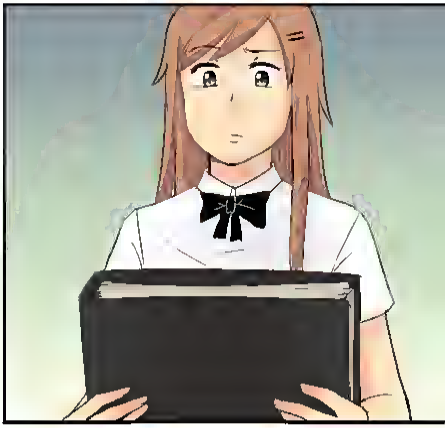


But why would Ikeda-kun's mother leave something important like this lying around...

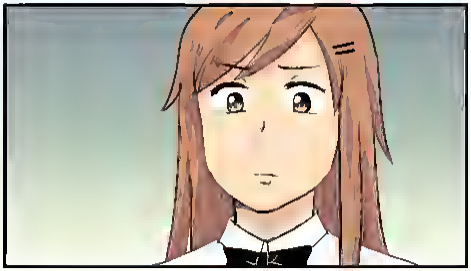


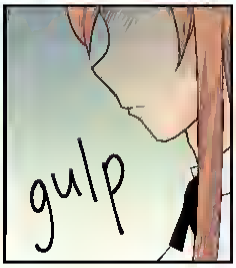
She seems like a proper adult

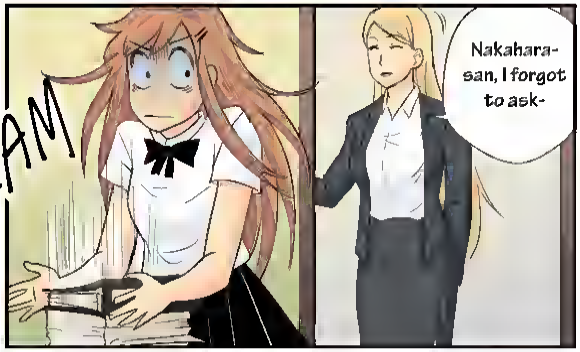
She also did say "-feel free to look around" ...

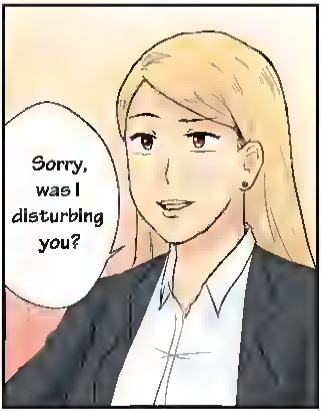


Does that mean I'm allowed to read it?

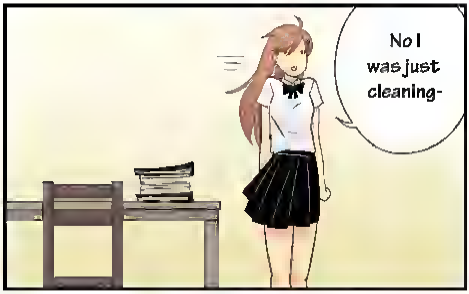




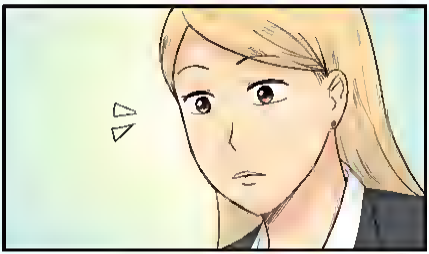


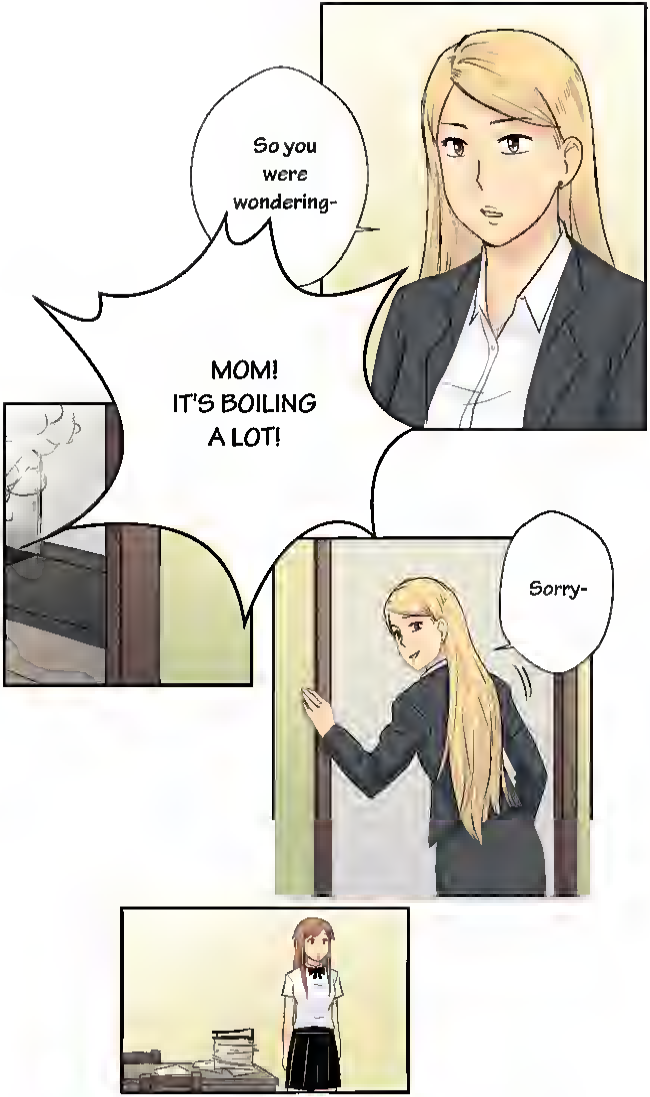


Sorry, was I disturbing you?

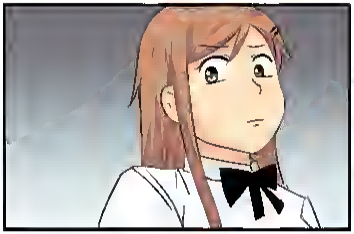


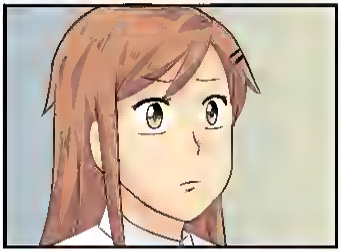
No I was just cleaning-

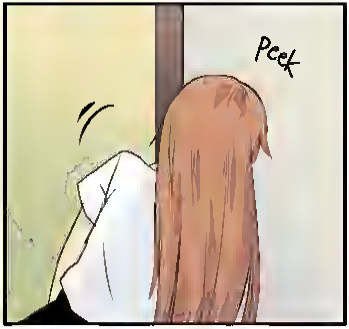




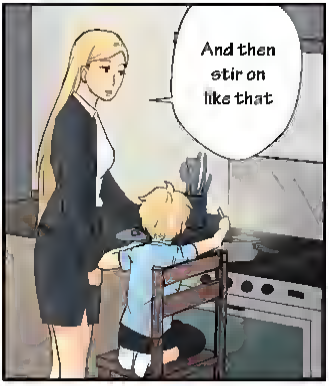
So you were wondering-
MOM! IT'S BOILING A LOT!
Sorry-



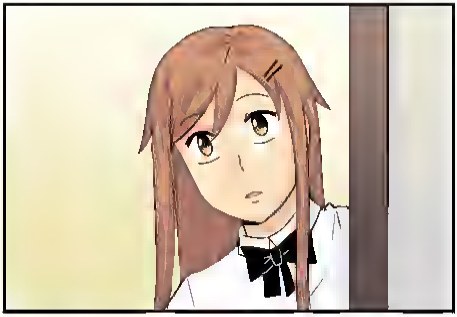


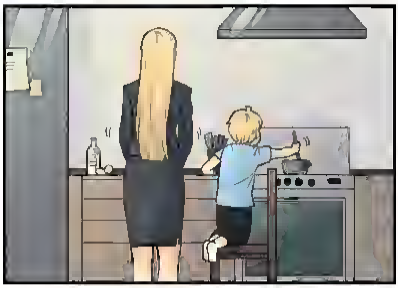


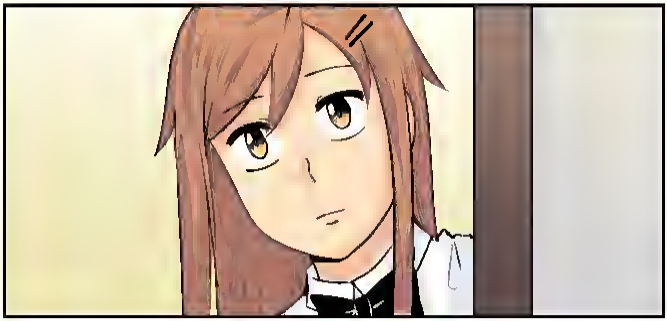
Peek

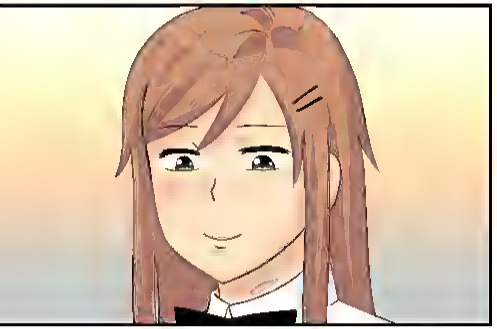


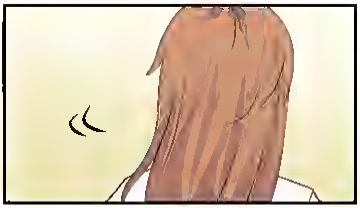
And then stir on like that



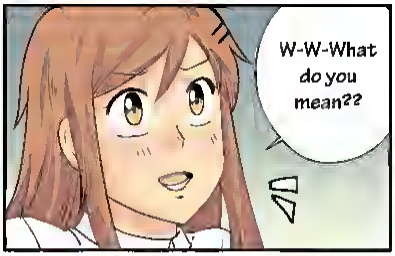




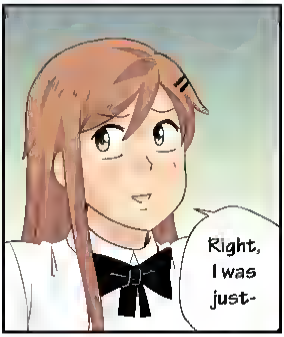




What are you doing?

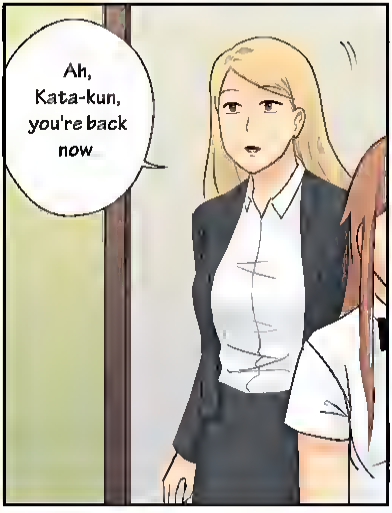


W-W-What do you mean??

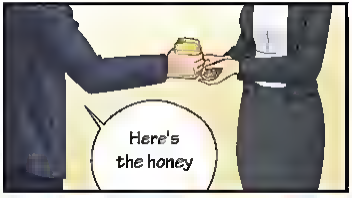


Right, I was just-

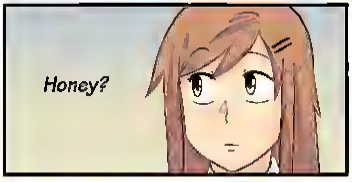
You were the one just standing there staring into the kitchen



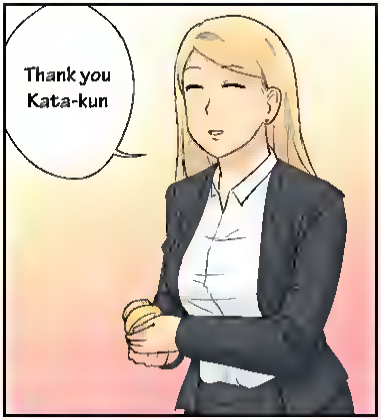
Ah, Kata-kun, you're back now

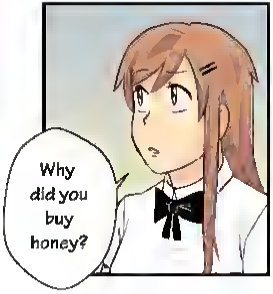


Here's the honey



Honey?





Why am I not surprised?
